

South Australia - Rolling King

L. A. Smith

Capstan anchor and pumps

M  $\text{♩} = 140$  D Solo: /F# A7 D Kor: D /F# Hm A7 D Solo:

1) South Au-stra-lia is me home. Heave a - away! Heave a-way! South Au-stra-lia is me home. An' I'm bound for South Au - stra-li-a! Heave a-way! Heave a-way!

T B

M 6 A7 D Kor: D A7 D Alle: /F# G A7

T B Kor: Alle:

M 11 D Hm G A7 D Hm7 A7 D

Heave a-way you Rol-ling King. An' we're bound for South Au - stra-li-a!

T B

M = melody
Solo
T = tenor
B = bas

- 1) South Australia is me home.
 Kor: Heave away! Heave away!
 South Australia is me home.
 Kor: An' I'm bound for South Australia.
 Alle: Heave away! Heave away!
 Heave away you Rolling King.
 An' we're bound for South Australia!

- 2) My wife is standin' on the quay.
Kor: Heave ...
The tears do start as she waves to me.
Kor: An' I'm bound ...
Alle: Heave away...
- 3) An' when I'm on a foreign shore,
I'll think o' me darlin' that I adore.
- 4) There ain't but one ting grieves me mind,
to leave my wife an' child behind.
- 5) There ain't but one thing grieves me, an' that's me wife an' dear ba-bee.
- 6) An' as I stand on a foreign shore,
I'll drink to the wife that I adore.
- 7) Now I'm on a foreign strand,
with a glass o' pisco vino in me hand.
- 8) I'll drink a glass to my own shore,
I'll drink to the gal that I adore.
- 9) I'll tell ye now, it ain't no lie,
I'll love that gal until I die.
- 10) This cross ye see at the bottom of the line,
is only to keep ye in my mind.
- 11) Now we're homeward bound again,
I'll soon be seeing Sarah Jane.
- 12) Oh, fare-ye-well, now fare-ye-well,
oh, fare-ye-well, I wish ye well.

South Australia – Rolling King
alternativ title: Ruler King, South Australia